Date: Friday, September 26, 2008
Time: 6 a.m. to noon

Journey around Lake Ramsey

To raise awareness of the sacredness of water and the need to respect, protect and rehabilitate it. The water journey is a relay walk of Anishnaabe women carrying water and those wishing to support them. Starting in the court yard where the tipi is located at Laurentian University, the journey will conclude at the Canisius Hall at the University of Sudbury with a feast. Supporters are welcome to join us at any point during the relay.

Location:
Laurentian University
